What I have been studying?

This was an essay on what was the biggest problem facing the USA in the 1920s.

My response to the feedback:

I am really pleased with your comments about my work. I did try my best. I agree that drafting my essay first allowed me to better plan my answer. I think you are right about the conclusion. I didn't real show any linking between the factors I had chosen.

Thinking about what needs to improve.

What I did well:

Structuring my work.
Writing about three factors and explaining them in detail.

Targets for improvement:

Make sure I show how factors link together either in my essay or in my conclusion.

Next steps FOCUSED on improvement and progress.
