Some Learners:

To outline the effect of Destalinisation on the Soviet Bloc and Hungary in particular, to summarise the causes of the Hungarian Uprising and begin to evaluate the reasons and consequences for its failure.

Learning objectives:

I know I will have made progress in my learning today if I can...

WHY DID THE UPRISING BEGIN:

REASON 1:

The Death of Stalin - Khrushchev was turning against Stalin's supporters throughout the communist world. Rakosi described himself "as Stalin's greatest disciple" and had to go.

REASON 2:

Rakosi was replaced with reformist less strict communists in Hungary.

REASON 3:

In Poland the pro Soviet Communists had been replaced by more moderate communists after mass protests.

On November 1st 1956 Nagy announced that he was planning to pull Hungary out of the Warsaw Pact and declare Hungarian neutrality.

The Fortune Teller of History...woaaaahhhh.!!

I predict that the Soviet Union and Krushchev will react to the Uprising by...
I think this because...

WHY DID THE SOVIETS INVADE IN NOV.1956?

WHY DID THE WEST NOT SUPPORT THE HUNGARIANS IN NOV.1956?

Plenary

Write a list of reasons why the Hungarian Uprising failed.

Rank order them.

Choose your most important and be prepared to share it.

If you were Nagy and could change one thing that might have prevented the uprising from failing - what would it be?
