US Society 1919 - 29:
Chapter 4: Assessing the Jazz Age

Learning Gain:

Will evaluate the period known as the Jazz Age and be able to justify their views about who were the winners and losers in this period based upon witness testimony.

Learning Steps:

- Think about whether all people benefitted from the boom.
- Listen to eye witness testimony from key people and groups from the period.

- Evaluate whether all people were successful in the 1920s.

The Fortune Teller of History...woaaaahhh!!

Reflect and Connect

Do you think all Americans will have prospered in the 1920's?

Based upon your work in the last unit which examined the US Economy 1919-29 write 30 words which predicts what you think the answer to the question is...

Three Mins

You have three minutes to complete your task - you limey learners!

Lets check progress on your reflect and connect...

Its time to put some of you...

JOINT CONGRESS/SENATE
HEARING INTO THE JAZZ
AGE

Presiding Congressman - Mr Walker
Majority Leader

STARTS IN 5 MINUTES

Honoured guests and witnesses please prepare yourself.

JOINT CONGRESS/SENATE
HEARING INTO THE JAZZ AGE

Presiding Senator - Mrs Lister
Speaker of the House
Presiding Congressman - Mr Walker
Majority Leader

Main

"A chicken in every pot,
a car in every garage."

President Herbert Hoover

"In America today we are nearer the final triumph over poverty than is any other land."

Main

Picked at random from the typewriter of fate witnesses will be asked to stand and will have...

1 minute in which to introduce themselves and give some information about their lives in the "Roaring 20s".

A further minute will be given to questions from the floor of the Hearing.

The remaining members of the Hearing should complete their learning mat.

So was the Jazz Age a period of untold prosperity for all Americans?

Whats your evidence for this?

Does this link to your previous work on the US economy?

Please complete the first task
in your extended learning and plenary booklet.

Due next lesson

Write an overview on whether the 1920s was a "Jazz Age" for everyone
using examples from the period.
