Chapter 3 and 4: Alphabet Dating Agency

Learning Gain - by the end of this sequence of lessons...

Will be able to illustrate, compare and contrast how Hoover and Roosevelt tried to use the "American Spirit" to solve the Depression and analyze how the Alphabet Agencies tackled specific targeted groups and problems as part of the New Deal.

Learning Steps:

- Think about "Rugged Individualism and the American Spirit."
- Explore in more detail what the Alphabet Agencies could do for specific Americans in need.
- Create a revision booklet on the Alphabet Agencies.
- Prepare and answer an assessment question on the New Deal.

Both Hoover and Roosevelt talked about the "Rugged Individualism" of the American people and their "Spirit"

What was the fundamental difference between Hoover and Roosevelt in how to use this American Spirit in the economic crisis?

You have 5 minutes to do this task using less than words.

Will be able to discuss, compare and contrast how Hoover and Roosevelt tried to use the "American Spirit" to solve the Depression

[Blank orange speech bubble]

It is not the government who will sort out this crisis, but the rugged individualism of the American Spirit.

"We have nothing to fear but fear itself".
