

1) What was the aim of the suffragettes/suffragists?

2) Why did the suffragettes split from the suffragists?

3) Write an argument which supports the philosophy of both groups?

4) Explain in your own words what "Words not Deeds" means and link it to the suffragettes split from Fawcett's group?

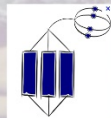

5) The events of 1907:

a) How is the protest march an example of "Words not Deeds"?

b) At what point did the suffragettes go to far in exercising their democratic rights?

c) Did the police act in a "Peelian" way?

d) Who was to blame for the violence? Explain your answer.